

PRESS RELEASE

June 13, 2011

Pennington Lawson co-founding partner Lisa Lawson has been appointed by the California State Bar to serve on the Executive Committee of the Bar's Labor and Employment Law Section. Her three-year term will commence at the Annual State Bar Meeting, on September 18, 2011.

Pennington Lawson is a women-owned boutique law firm based in San Francisco that specializes in real estate and employment law. Ms. Lawson has over fifteen years of practice in large-stakes employment disputes. She has extensive experience in employment litigation (state, federal, and arbitration), counseling, and training; workplace investigations; negotiation of employment contracts and separation agreements; and preparation of employment-related agreements and policies. She can be reached through the firm's website: www.PenningtonLawson.com.